PRESS RELEASE

June 5, 2010

Assault

On July 2, 2010 shortly after 6:00 pm Pembroke Police responded to a call for assistance in the area of Mackay and Hunter Street in Pembroke. A male who appeared to be agitated was in the area causing damage to property. The male attended an address located in the 100 block on Hunter Street and damaged an outside door. He then entered into an argument with two people at the residence regarding the damage to the door. The male grabbed one of the two people and threw that person down the stairs and then threw a large rock at the second person striking that person in head knocking him out. Police and Ambulance were called and attended the location. The male entered into a physical altercation with police while he was being arrested. As a result of a police investigation, 33 year old Philippe Gour of Pembroke was arrested and charged with break and enter, aggravated assault, assault, uttering threats, mischief, resist arrest, and breach of recognizance. Gour was held in custody for a bail hearing. The victim that had been knocked unconscious was transported to hospital where he was treated for serious but non-life threatening injuries.
