2. Veteran's Voices - The Art of Healing

Purvis Gallery and Framing invites you to their newest art exhibition, Veteran's Voices - The Art of Healing. This exhibition includes work that is experimental, directed, revealing, conceptual and concrete. Every piece here has its own story, its own time and place and reflects a personal part of the artist's life.

Here is a collection of art produced by 12 veterans, some of whom would never have considered themselves artists, and others whose artistic talents have been reawakened in the process.

Runs Oct. 24-Nov. 10 at Purvis Gallery and Framing (86 Pembroke St. W.).

3. Library Short Story Contest

Are you a nonfiction writer? Then check out this Short Story Contest hosted by Pembroke Public Library. Between Oct. 15 and Dec. 15, adult writers are invited to submit a 1,000- to 1,500-word story on the theme of "Memories of the Valley."
