

City of Pembroke Notice from Red Cross

For Immediate Release – May 27, 2019

Residents affected by flooding who have not yet received assistance from Red Cross and would like to see if they qualify, need authentication or to register in person can do so by visiting the Renfrew County Canadian Red Cross Assistance Centre. The Centre is located at the Renfrew County & District Health Unit building in the café at 9 International Drive, Pembroke, Ontario. They will be open daily from 10:00am – 6:30pm.

Additionally, Red Cross Clean-up Kits are still available at City Hall for pick-up by residents in flood-affected areas. City Hall is located at 1 Pembroke Street East and kits will be available for pick-up Monday-Friday 8am-4pm.
